JAN 24 - 1961

The image is a high-contrast, black and white scan of a textured surface. A prominent, dark, irregular vertical band runs down the center, suggesting a fold, a crease, or a shadow. The surrounding areas are filled with a grainy, mottled pattern of black and white, giving it the appearance of a heavily textured material like fabric or a book cover. The overall effect is abstract and somewhat chaotic due to the high contrast and noise.
